Baltimore Restaurant Week Winter 2026 Extended through Saturday, February 7, 2026

(Baltimore, MD) — Due to the recent inclement weather impacting diners and restaurants across the region, Baltimore Restaurant Week Winter 2026 has been extended to give residents and visitors additional time to enjoy the city's vibrant and eclectic dining scene.

Baltimore Restaurant Week Winter 2026, presented by Pompeian and originally scheduled to conclude February 1, will now continue through Saturday, February 7.

On Monday, February 2, the Baltimore Restaurant Week website will be updated to reflect the restaurants that have opted to participate in the extension.

Please note that not all restaurants may be able to extend their participation due to a variety of operational considerations. Diners are strongly encouraged to check individual restaurant websites and/or confirm directly with the restaurant to ensure continued participation during the extended period.

About Baltimore Restaurant Week:

Baltimore Restaurant Week is a biannual celebration of the city's diverse and dynamic culinary community, offering prix-fixe menus at restaurants across Baltimore and providing a welcome boost to the local hospitality industry.
